PLEA

Comes the Defendant in the above styled cause and for plea to the complaint filed in said cause, pleads the following separate and several pleas, viz:

1. That the allegations of the complaint are untrue.
2. That there was no consideration for the instrument sued on passing from the Plaintiff to the Defendant.
3. That at the time said action was commenced the Plaintiff was indebted to the Defendant in the sum of Nine Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($9,500.00) which she had paid to Howard Harden for the use and benefit of the said Howard Harden and W. M. Harden which she hereby offers to set off against the demand of the Plaintiff and she claims judgment for the excess.
4. That the Plaintiff fraudulently procured the execution of the check which is the basis of the suit. Prior to the execution and delivery of such check the Plaintiff, W. M. Harden, together with Howard Harden and one Charles Knight had fraudulently represented unto the Defendant that they held an option on certain timber located near Durango Mexico and after the said Howard Harden had persuaded the Defendant to pay him the sum of Nine Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($9,500.00) to be applied upon such option the said Howard Harden and the Plaintiff persuaded the Defendant to give the check which is the basis of this suit as a further payment on such option and such check was given by the Defendant to the Plaintiff with the specific understanding and agreement that he was to carry it to Durango Mexico but was not to cash it or deposit it until he had secured in the name of the Defendant, satisfactory instruments in writing, granting to the Defendant a proper option on such timber, jointly with Howard Harden and the Plaintiff. That the Plaintiff fraudulently deposited such check in Durango Mexico without having first procured such option and such option has never been delivered to the Defendant. That such check was procured by the Plaintiff as a part of a common scheme which he had entered into with his brother Howard Harden to defraud the Defendant and no consideration of any type ever passed from the Plaintiff to the Defendant in connection with the amount or sum of money evidenced by such check.
