MALCOLM HAWKE,

Plaintiff,

vs.

WILLIAM BROWN,

Defendant.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF

BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA

AT LAW NO. 3169

Comes the Defendant in the above styled cause and for plea to the complaint filed in said cause says:

- 1. Not guilty.
- 2. The Defendant alleges that at the time and place complained of in the Plaintiff's complaint, the said Plaintiff, acting by and through Carol R. Hall, who was the agent, servant or employee of such Plaintiff, and who was then and there acting within the line and scope of his employment as such, was himself guilty of contributory negligence which was the proximate cause of the Plaintiff's damages.
- Hundred Dollars ($500.00) as damages, by way of recoupment and such Defendant alleges that on to-wit, December 24, 1956, the Defendant drove his automobile into Orange Street at a point near Mobile Avenue (U. S. Highway Number 98) where he had a right to be and as he entered such street the Plaintiff, acting by and through Carol R. Hall, who was the agent, servant or employee of such Plaintiff and who was acting within the line and scope of his employment as such, negligently ran his automobile into or against the automobile of the Defendant and as a proximate result of the Plaintiff's negligence the Defendants automobile was damaged in this: the right front fender was demolished, his right headlight was broken and the grill was broken, all to the damages of the Defendant in the sum above mentioned.

DEMURRER

Ĭ

Comes now the Defendant in the above styled cause and demurs to the complaint filed in said cause and assigns the following separate and several grounds, viz:

- 1. That said complaint does not state a cause of action.
- 2. That said complaint does not allege that the accident occurred in Baldwin County, Alabama.
- 3. That said complaint does not sufficiently state where the accident occurred.
- 4. That the allegation in said complaint that the Plaintiff's automobile was being operated along a certain street "where it has a right to be" fails to allege that any one was driving the car owned by the Plaintiff at the time of the accident.
- 5. That said complaint fails to state that the Defendant negligently injured the Plaintiff or his automobile.
- 6. That the allegation in the complaint that the Defendant negligently caused, allowed or permitted said automobile to run against the automobile of the Plaintiff is but a conclusion of the pleader.

AT LAW

Vs.

WILLIAM BROWN,

Defendant

COUNT ONE

Ž

The Plaintiff claims of the Defendant the sum of $500.00 as damages for that heretofore on, to-wit, December 24th, 1956, the Plaintiffs automobile was being operated along and upon a public street in the City of Fairhope, Alabama, on, to-wit, Orange Street at a point near Mobile Avenue (U. S. Highway No. 98), where he had a right to be and while said automobile was being operated and driven along said Orange Street an automobile which was being driven by the Defendant ran upon, over and against the automobile of the Plaintiff, causing great damages and injuries to the Plaintiff's automobile: the left front fender, axle, radiator, left front wheel, and other parts of the Plaintiff's automobile were bent, broken, smashed or otherwise damaged and injured, all to the damage of the Plaintiff as aforesaid.

And the Plaintiff aleges that his said damages to his said automobile were proximately caused by the negligence of the Defendant, in that he negligently caused, allowed or permitted said automobile to run upon, over or against the automobile of the Plaintiff and as a proximate consequence thereof, the Plaintiff's automobile was damaged and injured as aforesaid.
