Whereas, the undersigned presiding Judge of said Court has for a long time been on intimate terms of friendship with the parties in this cause; has been a frequent visitor and over-night guest in their home, and

Whereas by reason of such association the said Judge has of necessity observed facts that may, under the issues of said case, become material testimony if called as a witness, and,

Whereas, the said Judge because of such association and observation has formed opinions and prejudices likely to bias his judgment and unsettle that perfect ~~equipoise~~ necessary for impartial justice, does hereby, of his own motion, recuse himself in said cause and decline to assume jurisdiction.

It is ordered that the Register of this Court enter this recusation on the Minutes of the Court that the parties may take such action as they may be advised.
