and M. S. Reynolds
Defendants

: IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF

: BALDWIN COUNTY, ALABAMA,

: AT LAW,

: NO. _____

COUNT ONE:

Plaintiff claims of the Defendants the sum of Three Hundred and no/100 ($300.00) Dollars as damages for that heretofore on, to-wit, September 4, 1956, the Defendant John Purdue, an agent, servant or employee of the Reynolds Bros. Lumber Co., was operating a motor vehicle southwardly on U.S. Highway No. 31 approximately seven miles North of Bay Minette, said Highway being a public highway in Baldwin County, Alabama, and then and there while acting within the line and scope of his authority as such agent, servant or employee, said John Purdue so negligently operated said motor vehicle as to cause or to allow rocks loaded on or carried by said motor vehicle to fall or be thrown from said motor vehicle and to hit against the automobile of the plaintiff which was then being driven northwardly on said U.S. Highway No. 31, at said time and place, and as a direct and proximate consequence of Defendants' negligence, plaintiff's automobile was Badly bent, broken and damaged to the injury of the plaintiff, hence this suit.
