CASE NO. _____

Plaintiff, G. H. Jackson, brings this proceeding against the Defendant, W. P. Brown & Sons, Inc., d/b/a Ray E. Loper Lumber Company, Inc., a corporation, pursuant to the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act of the State of Alabama, Title 26, Section 279 D et seq., Code of Alabama, 1940, as amended to recover compensation as provided for in said Act on account of injuries to his left shoulder causing the shoulder to become disabled and stiffen and said shoulder being in continued pain so that the said petitioner is unable to obtain gainful employment, said injury being sustained by the said G. H. Jackson and arising out of and in the course of his employment by the Defendant in the manner as hereinafter shown and Plaintiff avers as follows:

1. That Plaintiff resides in the Dyas Community in the County of Baldwin, State of Alabama and was at the time of the injury complained of by him, and is now, a resident citizen of the United States of America, and was also at both of said times married to and residing with Corinne Jackson who with one son under the age of 18 years, are dependent upon him for their support and maintenance.

2. That on to-wit the 25th day of June, 1957, Plaintiff was an employee of the said Defendant, W. P. Brown & Sons, Inc., d/b/a Ray E. Loper Lumber Company, Inc., a corporation, and both were subject to the aforesaid Workmen's Compensation Act; that on said date, the Plaintiff, while employed by the Defendant in its pole mill business and while engaged in the course of his said employment at Bay Minette, Alabama while removing trash from under the pole peeler, that the said injury occurred to his left shoulder and the injury was a proximate result of the work and was caused by the work in which he was engaged.

3. That the Defendant, W. P. Brown & Sons, Inc., d/b/a Ray E. Loper Lumber Company, Inc., a corporation, had prompt and immediate notice of said accident and has failed or refused to pay the plaintiff any compensation to which he is entitled under said Workmen's Compensation Act.

4. That the said plaintiff, G. H. Jackson, at the time of his said injury, was receiving wages from the defendant at the rate of approximately $40.00 per week.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff claims of the defendant such compensation benefits as he may be entitled to receive under the Workmen's Compensation Act of the State of Alabama, the same being Title 26, Section 279 D, et seq., Code of Alabama, 1940, as amended, after first giving notice to the defendant of the filing of this suit as now prescribed by law and hearing evidence in support thereof.

AND FURTHER:

Plaintiff, G. H. Jackson, shows unto this Honorable Court against the Defendant, W. P. Brown & Sons, Inc., d/b/a Ray E. Loper Lumber Company, Inc., a corporation, pursuant to the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act of the State of Alabama, Title 26, Section 279 D, et seq., Code of Alabama, 1940, as amended to recover compensation as provided for in said Act on account of injuries to his right shoulder causing the shoulder to become disabled and stiffen and said shoulder being in continued pain so that the said petitioner is unable to obtain gainful employment, said injury being sustained by the said G. H. Jackson and arising out of and in the course of his employment by the Defendant in the manner as hereinafter shown and Plaintiff avers as follows:

1. That Plaintiff resides in the Dyas Community in the County of Baldwin, State of Alabama and was at the time of the injury complained of by him, and is now, a resident citizen of the United States of America, and was also at both of said times married to and residing with Corinne Jackson who with one son under the age of 18 years, are dependent upon him for their support and maintenance.

2. That on to-wit August 17, 1955 Plaintiff was an employee of the said Defendant, W. P. Brown & Sons, Inc., d/b/a Ray E. Loper Lumber Company, Inc., a corporation, and both were subject to the aforesaid Workmen's Compensation Act; that on said date, the Plaintiff, while employed by the Defendant in its pole mill business and while engaged in the course of his said employment at Bay Minette, Alabama while using a peavy turning poles the pole slipped and snatched the peavy stock against his right shoulder injuring the shoulder so that an operation was necessary, and said injury occurred to his right shoulder and the said injury was a proximate result of the work and was caused by the work in which he was engaged.

3. That the Defendant, W. P. Brown & Sons, Inc., d/b/a Ray E. Loper Lumber Company, Inc., a corporation, had prompt and immediate notice of said accident and authorized medical and hospital expense for the Plaintiff and paid temporary compensation to said plaintiff for to-wit approximate 8 or 9 months and returned said plaintiff to the said Defendant's employment.

4. That the said Defendant was injured on to-wit June 25th, being injured <sup>1957</sup> in the right shoulder at the same time and occasion that his left shoulder was injured as set forth above, and that he is entitled under said Workmen's Compensation Act.

5. That the said Plaintiff, G. H. Jackson, at the time of his said injury, was receiving wages from the Defendant at the rate of approximately $40.00 per week.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff claims of the defendant such compensation benefits as he may be entitled to receive under the Workmen's Compensation Act of the State of Alabama, the same being Title 26, Section 279 D, et seq., Code of Alabama, 1940, as amended, after first giving notice to the defendant of the filing of this suit as now prescribed by law and hearing evidence in support thereof.
