CASE NO. _____

Comes defendant, R. D. Friese and as a special plea in said cause shows unto this honorable court as follows:

1.

That the court as noted in the said Bill of Complaint did not have jurisdiction of the parties against whom judgement was rendered and therefore this honorable court is without jurisdiction to try this cause.

2.

That the alleged judgement shown for this suit is void and as grounds for said plea assigns as follows:

A. The said court allegedly rendering said decree did not have jurisdiction of the parties against whom said judgement was rendered and therefore this honorable court is without jurisdiction to try said cause.

B. That the alleged judgement on which this action is based was rendered in violation of the "Due Process" clause of the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Alabama, in that neither the person of the defendant nor his property was within the jurisdiction of the court allegedly rendering the judgement on which this action is founded.

C. That the said R. D. Friese is not now and has never been a member of Friese Brothers, an alleged partnership.

D. That the said R. D. Friese does not know and has not known for about 40 years an individual named Jake Friese, allegedly a partner of your defendant.

E. Said complainant in this cause fails to allege that the court rendering the alleged decree against your defendant, R. D. Friese, affirmatively showed said defendant a known resident of said state was within the jurisdiction of said court.

Wherefore, said action being founded on a void judgement, Defendant R. D. Friese prays the judgement of this honorable court that judgement be entered for Defendant R. D. Friese.
