That we, George Styron, as principal, and the Fidelity and Casualty Company of New York, New York, New York, as surety, are held and firmly bound unto A. B. Lee in the sum of Four Thousand & NO/100 ($4,000.00) Dollars, to be paid to the said A. B. Lee, his executors, administrators, and assigns; for which payment, well and truly to be made, we bind our heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, jointly and severally, firmly by these presents. Sealed with our seals and dated this 28th day of July, 1959.

The condition of the above obligation is such that, whereas the above bounden George Styron has on the date hereof prayed an attachment against the estate of the above named A. B. Lee, for the sum of Two Thousand & NO/100 ($2,000.00) Dollars, and has obtained the same, returnable to the Circuit Court of Baldwin County, Alabama.

Now, if the plaintiff shall prosecute said attachment to effect, and pay the defendant all costs and damages as may be sustained by reason of any wrongful or vexatious suing out of such attachment, then this obligation to be void, other wise to remain in full force and effect.

Before me, the undersigned, Alice J. Duck, Clerk of the Circuit Court in and for said County in said State, personally appeared George Styron, who being by me first duly sworn according to law, deposes and says:

That his name is George Styron; that A. B. Lee is indebted to him in the amount of Two Thousand & NO/100 ($2,000.00) Dollars, as evidenced by a chattel mortgage note executed by him, on the 12th day of August, 1957; that the said A. B. Lee has defaulted in the payment of said indebtedness, and there is now due George Styron the sum of Two Thousand & NO/100 ($2,000.00) Dollars;

That the said note as hereinabove described secures as payment for said indebtedness all the entire shop tools, equipment and fixtures of every kind and description, including one Chevrolet pick-up truck; that the said George Styron has a mortgage lien upon said property, and that this attachment is not sued out for the purpose of vexing or harrassing the said A. B. Lee.
