

J. N. Weeks

vs

Joseph Wenzel.

Circuit Court, Baldwin County.

1. Plaintiff claims of the defendant $215.40, balance due on promissory note made by the defendant and payable to the plaintiff on or before the 15th day of August, 1913, with interest from maturity; also the sum of $35.00, attorney's fee, the defendant having agreed on the face of the note aforesaid to pay a reasonable attorney's fee for collecting said note.

2. Plaintiff claims of the defendant the further sum of $50.00, due by account on, to-wit, the first day of April, 1914, which, with interest thereon, is still due and unpaid.

3. Plaintiff claims of the defendant the further sum of $50.00, due on account stated between plaintiff and defendant on, to-wit, the 1st day of April, 1914, which, with interest thereon, is still due and unpaid.

The defendant has waived all claims of exemption for the payment of the debt sued for in the first count of this complaint.
