

Frederick Schmitt, a minor,) by his next friend, William) In Circuit Court, Baldwin County, Schmitt, Plaintiff.) Alabama, Spring Term, 1916.
 VS.)
 F. S. Briner, Defendant.)

1st. The plaintiff, Frederick Schmitt, a minor, who sues by his next friend, William Schmitt, claims of the defendant FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($5000.00) as damages, for that, the defendant did on or about the 13th day of November, 1915, in the town of Foley, Baldwin County, Alabama, negligently drive his team upon or against the said plaintiff thereby breaking his leg and inflicting bruises and injuries to him whereby the plaintiff suffered great mental and physical pain, was put to the expense of medical services and was permanently injured; all to the plaintiff's damage as aforesaid.

2nd. The plaintiff, a minor, suing by his next friend, William Schmitt, sues the defendant, F. S. Briner, and claims of him Five THOUSAND DOLLARS ($5000.00) as damages, for that, whereas heretofore, to-wit: on the 13th day of November, 1915, the plaintiff was upon a public street in the town of Foley, Baldwin County, Alabama, and the defendant was driving a team of horses hitched to a wagon along or upon a street in said town and the said defendant so negligently drove the said team that he run upon, against or over the plaintiff knocking him down, breaking his leg and inflicting other injuries to his person, causing him much physical and mental suffering, ~~and~~ pain and anguish; inflicting permanent injuries and causing him to incur large expense for medical treatment; all to his damage as aforesaid, wherefore he sues.

3rd. The plaintiff, a minor, suing by his next friend, William Schmitt, claims of the defendant the sum of FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS ($5000.00), for that, on to-wit: the 13th day of November, 1915, the said defendant was driving a team of horses hitched to a wagon in the town of Foley, Baldwin County, Alabama, which ^{was} a much frequented thorough-fare; that the plaintiff was a child Five (5) years of age and was upon said street; that the defendant well knew that the said street was frequently used by pedestrians and it was his duty to keep a look-out and not to injure any pedestrian travelling said street, but not-with-standing his ^{said} duty in the premises, the defendant wantonly and wilfully or with reckless disregard as to the rights of the plaintiff negligently and recklessly drove his said team upon or against the said plaintiff, knocking him down, severely bruising him and breaking his leg and causing him much mental pain and physical suffering and permanently injuries, and putting him to great expense for medical attention; wherefore he sues.
