AT LAW

CASE NO. 4476

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned authority, Thomas T. Reding, who after first being duly sworn, deposes and says that according to the accident report made by the Defendant, he alleged his residence as Mobile, Alabama, and service was attempted to be made upon him by the sheriff of Mobile County, Alabama at that address, but the service was returned not found. That service was attempted to be made upon the Defendant through the sheriff's office at the supposed business address of the Defendant, and that the process was returned not found. It is the belief of the affiant that the Defendant has concealed himself so that process cannot be served upon him. Affiant further says that the Defendant is over the age of 21 years, and that he cannot ascertain and determine the residence and post office address of the Defendant, and that they are unknown and cannot be ascertained after reasonable efforts.
