1.

Macon Drug Store

2.

I cannot tell what question 2 is asking, the way it is phrased.

3.

I do not know what particular goods you are asking about, but I have received goods from the Plaintiff in the past.

(a.) I cannot tell what goods were shipped to me and what were not.

4.

I do not have any recollection whether these goods were satisfactory or not. I suppose they were.

(a.) I do not have any recollection of what goods were not satisfactory.

5.

I do not remember whether I shipped any back or whether a salesman may have taken some back.

(a.) I do not have any recollection of this.

6.

Yes, I have sold goods shipped to me from the company. I my business, I either sell the goods or ship them back.

7.

This information is as available to the Plaintiff as it is to me. I think this bill has been paid.

(a.) See 7.

8.

I have said before that I do not think your question is clear, as to what you mean by any other credit.

(a.) See 8.

9.

I am sure that I have given checks to the Plaintiff.

(a.) I am sure these checks were cashed.
