Circuit Court of Baldwin County,

4559 1/2

Dear Mrs. Duck:

We are in receipt of your Garnishment on Judgment against George C. Langham.

The State of Alabama has a set policy relative to delinquent accounts of state employees. It has been the practice through the years for the State Personnel Department in Montgomery to receive all complaints about past due accounts of state employees and that Department takes the proper steps to see that all legitimate accounts against state employees are promptly and properly liquidated.

In view of this policy, the office of State Comptroller of the State of Alabama desires to avail itself of the privilege allowed under Title 7, Section 1036, Code of Alabama, 1940, and does not assent or consent that judgments be entered against this office in this cause.

Yours very truly,

JOHN GRAVES,
State Comptroller.
