Baldwin County Producers Circuit Court
Corporation

Comes the defendant and denies to the first Court in said complaint and as charges of defendant say that said Court fails to show any consideration for defendant's alleged promise to pay to said Corporation 30% of its gross sales to persons other than the agent of the Corporation.

Plaintiff: That the by laws set out as the basis of the claim shows no contractual ^{relation} existing between defendant and plaintiff.

Defendant: that said by laws sets up no promise on the part of the defendant to pay said 30%.

Plaintiff: That said Court does not show wherein plaintiff was damaged by reason of defendants selling his produce to persons other than its agents.

Altho that the bylaw which is the basis of this suit shows no promise on the part of defendant to pay ^{to plaintiff} $\frac{3}{10}$ of this gross sales for products other than plaintiff products; that such bylaw is said in that it is a penalty that said Com. does not state that any fixed amount was agreed on between the parties as purchase price to be paid by said Corporation for defendants produce.
Therewith that it is not shown that plaintiff could have assured its products at a greater price than the amount it would have paid defendant for them; that said Com. does not show a purchase price from defendant and a price at which it might have resold said produce.

IN CIRCUIT COURT,

VS

ADAM FRISKORN.
DEFENDANT.

It is admitted in the above styled cause that the defendant did sell and deliver to persons, other than the authorized agent of the above plaintiff, produce to the amount of ^{$67.50} ~~FIFTY DOLLARS~~; it is also admitted that the said ADAM FRISKORN, at the time of such sale was a member of the said BALDWIN COUNTY PRODUCE CORPORATION.

The only questions to be decided by the Court are the ^{if the defendant has the legal right to raise such question} corporate existence of the plaintiff, the existence and validity of any by-law making its members liable to plaintiff for commissions on produce sold to persons other than plaintiff, and particularly plaintiff's right to enforce By-Law numbered 8th in Article 5, of Plaintiff's so called Constitution and By laws.
