C. P. Conway, Plaintiff, )
vs. ) CIRCUIT COURT, SPRING TERM,
J. W. Ferrel, Defendant. ) 1919.

Now comes the plaintiff and demurs to the 4th plea and assigns the following separate ground of demurrer:

1.

Said plea is a mere conclusion of the pleader.

2.

Said plea fails to set up any contract between the plaintiff and defendant.

3.

Said plea is a conclusion of the pleader in failing to set out any contract between the plaintiff and defendant and a breach of said contract by the ~~defendant~~ plaintiff.

4.

Said plea fails to set out a contract between the plaintiff and defendant and a breach of the contract by ~~plaintiff~~ to the damages of the ~~plaintiff~~ defendant.

and the plaintiff demurs to the third plea and assigns the following separate grounds of demurrer thereto:

1. Said plea fails to set out a state of facts showing a right on the part of the defendant to rescind the sale of the saw mill.

2. Said plea tries to rescind a contract of sale and purchase of a saw mill by the defendant from the plaintiff and fails to aver or show a contract between the plaintiff and defendant authorizing him to rescind said sale.

3. The allegations in said plea "as a condition precedent" is a mere conclusion of the pleader and the plea fails to aver what was "condition precedent."

4. The defendant fails to set out in his said plea legal reasons why he did not accept the said machinery.

5. Said plea purports to answer a complaint on a note and the complaint is based on a bill of exchange or sight draft andnot a note.

6. Said facts as set out in the said plea would not give this defendant a right to rescind the purchase of the saw mill, but only a right of action for damages for a breach of a contract between the plaintiff and defendant.

7. Said plea fails to set out in facts showing an agreement made and entered into by and between the plaintiff and defendant wherein the plaintiff agreed with the defendant that in the event he failed to load said saw as it is averred in said plea that he agreed to load the saw mill, that ~~said~~ defendant would have the right to rescind the said purchase.

FIRST.

Defendant for plea to each count of the complaint severally and separately pleads NOT GUILTY.

SECOND.

Defendant for answer to each count of complaint severally and separately pleads that he is not indebted.

THIRD.

Defendant for answer to each count of complaint severally and separately says that the note sued on was given as the consideration of a Conditional sale for one saw mill, the plaintiff agreed with defendant as a condition precedent that for said consideration he would load the said saw mill on the Rail Road cars according to the rules of the Rail Road and in such a manner that it would be accepted by the Rail Road for transportation, or that the person in authority representing the Rail Road would accept the same for transportation ; and defendant alleges that plaintiff failed or refused so to load said saw mill that it would be accepted by the person in authority of said Rail Road or by the rail road, and that it was not accepted by said Rail Road, or said person in authority by reason of the failure of complainant to comply with his agreement , and that for said reason said saw mill was never accepted by defendant and the consideration failed.

FOURTH.
