AGREEMENT

In receiving and handling items for deposit or collection (including items received in payment of collections) this Bank acts only as depositor's collecting agent and assumes no responsibility beyond the exercise of due care. It is also expressly understood and agreed that on all such items, all prior endorsements are guaranteed by the depositor, whether or not an express guarantee is incorporated in the endorsement. All items are credited or cashed subject to final payment in cash or solvent credits. This Bank will not be liable for default or negligence of its correspondents, nor for losses in transit, and no correspondent shall be liable except for its own negligence. It is optional, but not obligatory, to request certification in any case. This Bank or its correspondents may, as depositor's agent, send items, directly or indirectly, to any bank or to any drawee, acceptor or payor, and accept draft, cashier's or other check or credit of the drawee, maker or any bank as conditional payment in lieu of cash. It may charge back any item, whether returned or not, including items drawn on this Bank, at any time before final payment. It may decline to honor or pay checks drawn against conditional credits. This Bank shall have a lien on all items handled by it and on the proceeds thereof for its charges, expenses (including court costs and attorney's fees) and any advances made by it in connection therewith.

This Bank endeavors to credit promptly all items deposited, but cannot and does not assume any responsibility for or with respect to items drawn against deposits made on the same (or current) day, whether such deposits are of currency, items drawn on this Bank or other items, in the event that for any reason such deposited items are not credited in time to support payment of such items drawn against the account.

All items received for deposit or collection after regular banking hours may be deemed for all purposes to have been received for deposit or collection by the Bank as of the succeeding business day, although the Bank, in its discretion, may handle the items or put through the credit on the same day the deposit is received.

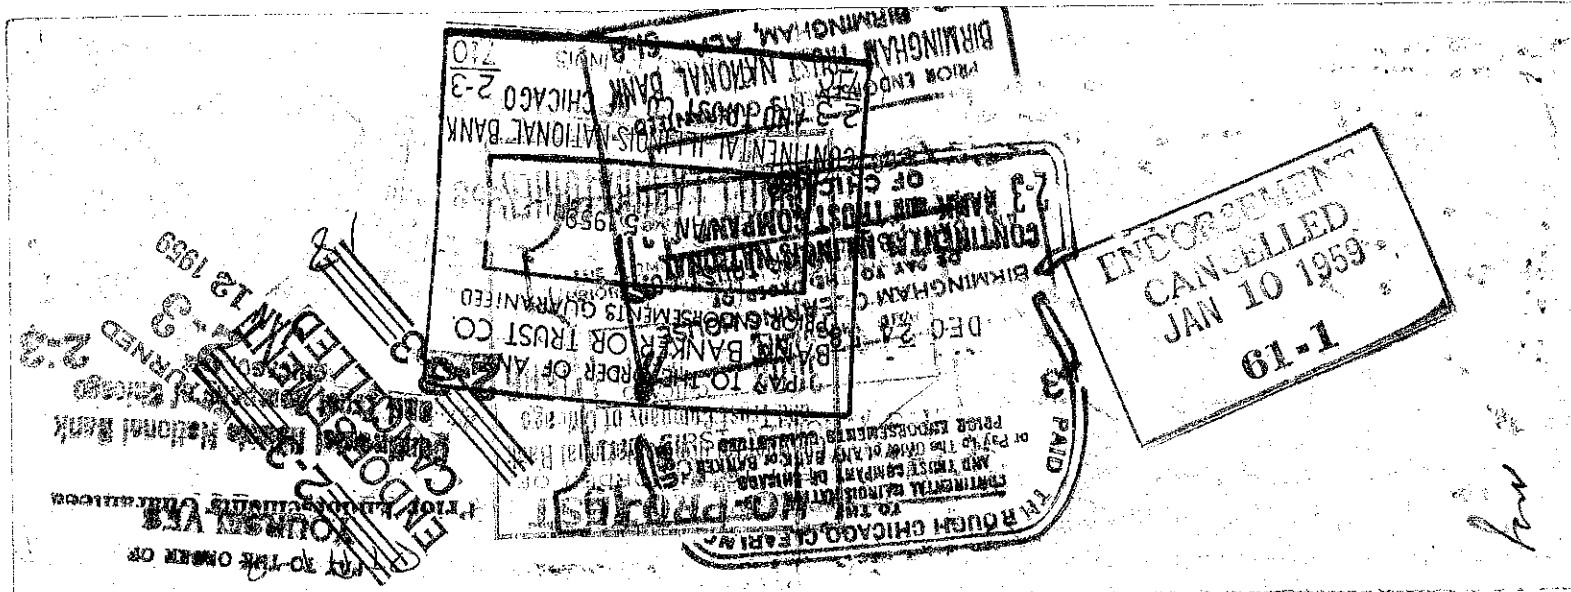

It may transmit any item for collection to any Federal Reserve Bank and such item shall be subject to the rules and regulations of such Federal Reserve Bank or of the Federal Reserve Board now in force or hereafter promulgated.

Items payable in the City of Chicago, or in any suburb thereof, may be collected through the Chicago Clearing House Association (in which event they may be carried over for presentation through the Clearing House on the following business day) and will be subject to its rules and regulations now in force or hereafter adopted, or they may be collected in any manner hereinbefore provided or contemplated.

This Bank endeavors to forward items payable outside of Chicago on day of receipt, but it is understood that they need not be forwarded until the following business day.

Packaged currency, coin, coupons and other items of property not verified in detail at the time of receipt, are accepted subject to a detailed verification, and if an error is discovered, correcting entries may be made.

Until items placed in the lobby depository shall have been removed, verified and credited, the relationship between the parties shall be that of bailor and bailee.

AGREEMENT

In receiving and handling items for deposit or collection (including items received in payment of collections) this Bank acts only as depositor's collecting agent and assumes no responsibility beyond the exercise of due care. It is also expressly understood and agreed that on all such items, all prior endorsements are guaranteed by the depositor, whether or not an express guarantee is incorporated in the endorsement. All items are credited or cashed subject to final payment to cash or solvent credits. This Bank will not be liable for default or negligence of its correspondents, nor for losses in transit, and no correspondent shall be liable except for its own negligence. It is optional, but not obligatory, to request certification in any case. This Bank or its correspondents may, as depositor's agent, send items, directly or indirectly, to any bank or to any drawee, acceptor or payor, and accept draft, cashier's or other check or credit of the drawee, maker or any bank as conditional payment in lieu of cash. It may charge back any item, whether returned or not, including items drawn on this Bank, at any time before final payment. It may decline to honor or pay checks drawn against conditional credits. This Bank shall have a lien on all items handled by it and on the proceeds thereof for its charges, expenses (including court costs and attorney's fees) and any advances made by it in connection therewith.

This Bank endeavors to credit promptly all items deposited, but cannot and does not assume any responsibility for or with respect to items drawn against deposits made on the same (or current) day, whether such deposits are of currency, items drawn on this Bank or other items; in the event that for any reason such deposited items are not credited in time to support payment of such items drawn against the account.

All items received for deposit or collection after regular banking hours may be deemed for all purposes to have been received for deposit or collection by the Bank as of the succeeding business day, although the Bank, in its discretion, may handle the items or put through the credit on the same day the deposit is received.

It may transmit any item for collection to any Federal Reserve Bank and such item shall be subject to the rules and regulations of such Federal Reserve Bank or of the Federal Reserve Board now in force or hereafter promulgated.

Items payable in the City of Chicago, or in any suburb thereof, may be collected through the Chicago Clearing House Association (in which event they may be carried over for presentation through the Clearing House on the following business day) and will be subject to its rules and regulations now in force or hereafter adopted, or they may be collected in any manner hereinbefore provided or contemplated.

This Bank endeavors to forward items payable outside of Chicago on day of receipt, but it is understood that they need not be forwarded until the following business day.

Packaged currency, coin, coupons and other items of property not verified in detail at the time of receipt, are accepted subject to a detailed verification, and if an error is discovered, correcting entries may be made.

Until items placed in the lobby depository shall have been removed, verified and credited, the relationship between the parties shall be that of bailor and bailee.
